++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mostly dry and rather cloudy. Clear spells in the west.

This Evening and Tonight:
Becoming rather cloudy for many tonight with some drizzle likely in eastern and northern parts. Occasional clear spells persisting in the west to allow a chilly feel and some rural fog patches to develop. Breezy in the south and southeast.

Monday:
A cloudier day with occasional drizzle in the north and east. Some bright or sunny intervals developing, although the best of any sunshine will be reserved for sheltered western parts.

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
England and Wales mainly dry with bright or sunny spells, but breezy and rather cool along southern and eastern coasts. Scotland and Northern Ireland, sunnier and warmer with light winds.
